

同志社大学院グローバル・スタディーズ研究科
Graduate School of Global Studies, Doshisha University

10th Anniversary Symposium
10周年記念イベント

*“What is Global Studies?
-Pursuing Conviviality and Constructing New Civilizations-”*

2019.11.30 (Sat) 10:30-18:30

VENUE

Ryoshinkan B1, Imadegawa campus, Doshisha University (今出川キャンパス良心館B1)

CONTACT

Office of the Graduate School of Global Studies

(問い合わせ先：同志社大学院グローバル・スタディーズ研究科事務室)

For more information:

<https://global-studies.doshisha.ac.jp/en/research/gs.html>

● Tel: 075-251-3930 Email: ji-gs@mail.doshisha.ac.jp

予約不要: No reservation required

What is Global Studies?

-Pursuing Conviviality and Constructing New Civilizations-

10:30- Welcoming and Open Remarks

10:45-11:30 Keynote Lecture:

“The Need and Fear of the Universal: Insights from the History of Interreligious Coexistence in Ethiopia”

By Prof. Éloi Ficquet, School of Advanced Studies in the Social Sciences (EHESS), France

11:45- 13:15 Session 1:

Theme: Human and Nature in the Historical Crossroad
(Presented by three distinguished speakers)

14:15- 16:15 Session 2:

Theme: Globalization and the Future of Civilizations
(Presented by four distinguished speakers)

16:30- 18:00 Session 3

(discussion in Japanese language with English translation):

日本語セッション（同時通訳あり）：

“誰も取り残されない社会をめざして—持続可能な開発目標（SDGs）と日本の人間の安全保障指標”

特別講師：高須幸雄（国際連合事務総長特別顧問（人間の安全保障担当））その後パネルディスカッションに続く

“Toward a Society in Which No One Is Left Behind: The Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and the Human Security Indicators of Japan”

Special Lecturer by H. E. Mr. Yukio Takasu, Special Advisor to the UN Secretary-General
(Panel discussion will follow)